What makes Union Hospital so special?

Union Hospital is an award-winning, full-service community hospital located in Elkton, Maryland. Nationally recognized for clinical excellence in the treatment and prevention of disease, our 84 licensed bed not-for-profit hospital is dedicated to providing superior, personalized, quality health care to our neighbors, families and friends.

Our mission is to enhance the health and well-being of residents in Cecil County and neighboring communities. Our services combine the latest technology with the warm, personal touch you'd expect from a community hospital. You will also find us in the community as well offering doctors, imaging, physical therapy and other services to help people stay well. Serving the residents of Cecil County and the neighboring communities in Delaware and southern Pennsylvania for more than 100 years, we've made it a priority to remain committed to the high quality of care that we've been known for since 1908.

Our growth.

Our growth is one example of how much we continue to respond to the needs of our community. Today, 1000 staff members and 160 physicians offer outpatient, surgical and emergency services, as well as comprehensive health education programs. Our six operating rooms host an average of 20 procedures a day.

Our inpatient tower offers important physical expansions and improvements in patient care. Features include advanced technology and telemetry, electronically controlled window frosting for patient privacy, decentralized nurses' stations for close patient monitoring, separate bathroom facilities for each patient, and additional space to make families and visitors more comfortable.

Life in Elkton & Cecil County.

Affordable housing. Good schools. Extensive shoreline. Beautiful countryside. Elkton, Maryland and surrounding communities of Cecil County offer the gracious living and family values you crave. Nestled between Philadelphia and Baltimore, Elkton is on the northern headwaters of the majestic Chesapeake Bay. A stroll down its tree-lined streets reveals a city that has beautifully blended many historic structures from the Revolutionary War with a modern, thriving business community. Yet, getting a taste of the big city is so convenient. You will find yourself only a half hour from Wilmington, DE, an hour from Philadelphia and Baltimore and about two hours from Washington DC and New York City.

Elkton's average housing prices are 20% lower than the state of Maryland. In fact, a favorable cost of living means your money will go further here.

If you have school age children, you will be comforted to know that we have a strong public school system and a number of private schools. Two high schools in our county are ranked in the top 9% of the nation by US News & World Report.

Once you experience Elkton and its many surrounding communities, you will love what you see and want to make this your home.

Leading-edge medicine with a difference.

Rich Szumel, MD
CEO Union Hospital

What makes it work is combining advanced technology with the personal touch of hometown care.

Our serene location – rich in history and surrounded by lush countryside – might belie our state-of-the-art environment. But we're big city medicine all the way. Highly-respected physicians use their leading-edge skills with today's most advanced technologies to deliver an incredible level of care.

We cover a wide range of specialty areas including medical, emergency, surgical, critical care, diagnostics, community education, rehabilitation, psychiatric, pediatrics, occupational health, and the care and treatment of cancer and diabetes.

Union Hospital was established in 1908. Since then we have established ourselves as an important part of the community we serve.

It's a caring atmosphere where it takes a team effort to live up to our mission and values every day.

As an integral part of that team, you will be committed to bringing safe, high-quality healthcare to Elkton and surrounding communities in an environment centered on care and compassion, integrity, leadership and shared learning.

So how do our physicians feel about practicing at Union Hospital? Here are observations from physicians in a variety of specialty areas. We think that their personal perspective will be meaningful in your search for a more fulfilling practice environment.

Here's what our physicians have to say ...

Justin Sausville, MD
Urology since 2011

"Always on top of my mind is my ability to make a difference in the life of each patient. Union Hospital allows me to do that in a dynamic and collaborative team environment that is truly like family."

Yi Li, MD
Obstetrics/Gynecology

"I originally came to Union because my partner recommended it. Since I've been here, I've learned that Union Hospital is an essential part of this community. It is patient-centered and always strives to provide the best care for patients. People here make you feel they are family because everyone knows everyone!"

Roger Wu, MD
Gastroenterology since 2013

"I felt an immediate vibe that something was pleasantly different about this hospital. With employees greeting each other, smiling and going out of their way to help, the experience was intensely personal."

Quality education.

Maryland's Cecil County
